ATTEMPT

Made to Assassinate Pope Leo in the Vatican Gardens Today.

Would-be Murderer Captured.

Was Armed With a Revolver and a Dirk and Admits That He Intended to Kill His Holiness. The Prisoner an Anarchist.

Special by wire to Times-Democrat. London, Aug. 26.—A dispatch from Rome reports that an anarchist whose identity is concealed by the police has been captured in the Vatican garden today. The man carried a revolver and a dirk, and has admitted that he intended to assassinate the Pope. The prisoner denounces Leo as "A Spirit of the devil keeping millions of men in slavery." The Pope had a narrow escape. The assassin lay hidden in a part of the gardens which the Pope traverses daily. His holiness was being carried from his private apartments in a chair when a Swiss guardman heard a noise in the shrubbery some distance away. The soldier investigated and discovered the assassin, whom he placed under arrest.

At the rooms of the Swiss guards, where the man was taken, the revolver and knife were found. The man said he had been hidden all morning in the Vatican gardens and expected to have no trouble in killing the Pope.

Pope Leo has not been informed of his narrow escape. The despatch says extraordinary precautions were taken to keep the occurrence a secret.

SUDDEN

Were the Summons Received By Robert G. Evans, Prominent Minnesotan.

Went to His Daughter's Room to Awaken Her But Could Not Speak and Fell Dead Upon a Balcony.

Minneapolis, Aug. 26.—Robert G. Evans, 47, United States district attorney for Minnesota, died suddenly of heart disease on the balcony of his home in Kenwood. Mr. Evans went to the bedroom of his daughter to awaken her. He grasped the footrail of the bed and shook it, seemingly unable to speak. Just as the daughter awoke Mr. Evans staggered from the room, made his way to the balcony over the front porch and sank to the floor dead. Mr. Evans was a prominent candidate before the legislature last winter to succeed the late C. K. Davis in the United States senate, but was defeated by M. E. Clapp of St. Paul. He had been entertaining Senators Fairbanks of Indiana, Quarles of Wisconsin and Clapp of Minnesota the past week, and the party returned from a fishing excursion to Alexandria Thursday. He seemingly was in excellent health up to a few hours before his death. Dr. Moore, the family physician, says he does not think the runaway accident of eight days ago, in which Senator Fairbanks and Mr. Evans were badly bruised and shaken up, in any way hastened the death of Mr. Evans. His wife died four months ago and it is believed her death hastened his demise.

Limited Train Wrecked. Columbia, S. C., Aug. 26.—The Florida and Metropolitan limited train of the Seaboard Air line was wrecked seven miles south of Cheraw by a sandbank washing out. Fireman Rosemond was crushed to death. Engineer Muse had a shoulder and leg injured and Tom Cleary, another engineer, was injured in the knees and legs. The passengers escaped with a severe shaking up. The engine and four front cars left the track and were turned completely over. The engine was a mass of debris. The tender was thrown 50 yards away. The track was torn up 150 yards and every car was off the track.

In 1892 he was appointed to the position of adjutant general of the army, and retired a year later. He married the widow of the late Stephen A. Douglas. He leaves three sons and three daughters.

TRAP

For the Enemy

Kitchener Sends in an Unfavorable Report from Ladybrand.

He is Banded a Hot Reply Under Flag of Truce from Commandant Latte Concerning Surrender.

Special by wire to Times-Democrat. London, Aug. 26.—General Lord Kitchener reports "A part of a command of three officers and 55 men, sent north from Ladybrand, were surrounded on untenable ground on August 22, and captured by superior force losing one killed and four wounded. Today's Insular Statement Gives Figures

Which Show a Most Prosperous Condition of Imports Between That Country and the United States.

Special by wire to Times-Democrat. Washington, Aug. 26.—Cuban import trade has been booming according to the war department division of insular affairs. A statement issued today shows that during the calendar year 1900, the aggregate value of iron steel and their manufactures from all countries taken into Cuba was $4,751,395, as against $2,950,546 during the calendar year 1899, an increase of $1,800,849, or 62 per cent.

Pickets Ignore Injunction. Chicago, Aug. 26.—Striking machinists at the Allis-Chalmers and the Gates iron works continued picketing the plants, despite the temporary injunction issued by Judge Kohlsaat. Pickets abounded at both plants, and it is reported that five imported machinists employed at the Gates works, who ventured outside the plant, were waylaid and severely beaten by friends of the strikers. Former Governor John P. Altgeld has been asked to fight the injunction on the part of the strikers, but it is said he refused to take charge of the case except in an advisory capacity.

DeLarey's Def. London, Aug. 26.—The war office has received the following dispatch from Lord Kitchener, dated at Pretoria, Aug. 25: "DeLarey has issued a counter proclamation warning all Boers against my latest proclamation and declaring that they will continue the struggle."

The Weather. For Ohio—Partly cloudy; probably showers and cooler at night; light easterly winds.

Special by wire to Times-Democrat. Louisville, Ky., Aug. 26.—The day of the Knights Templar arrival dawned partly cloudy, with predictions of rain for tomorrow, arousing dismal forebodings about the big parade. Commanderies are pouring in and more than a hundred will arrive during the afternoon and tonight. Deputy Grand Master Henry Bates Stoddard, who will be next Grand Master, arrived with the Texas Commandery and was given an impromptu reception by the Knights. The city is beautifully decorated.

FAMILY

Chloroformed By Persons Unknown.

The House Was Then Fired While They Slept.

The Flames Were Discovered by Neighbors and the Victims Intended for Cremation Were Rescued.

Special by wire to Times-Democrat. Columbus, Aug. 26.—An attempt was made this morning to cremate T. H. Wilson and his wife and three children, living on Parsons avenue. The family was chloroformed. A small boy aroused his mother who found the house in flames and the whole family in a stupor. The victims were finally rescued by neighbors. The police are working on the case.

Negroes Raided by Bungalos. Indianapolis, Aug. 26.—Another riot broke out in a crowd of 5,000 people at Fairview park. The trouble was caused by white boys from the west side known as the Bungalos. Members of this gang to the number of 150 congregated at the park and began a determined effort to drive all negroes out. A dozen of them were attacked by negro with his wife. He was knocked down several times. With a club he fought back, injuring two of the gang, but he was compelled to run toward the pavilion, where park officers came to his rescue. The fight was continued to the car and after the negro and his wife were on the car stones were thrown, injuring his wife. A negro named Harris was attacked in another part of the park about the same time and his right arm was broken before he was rescued. Two other negroes, one with his wife, were badly beaten. Twelve police were sent from the city to quell the riot, and their arrival stopped the trouble. Four members of the gang were arrested, the others scattering in the woods.

STRIKE

Has Not Yet Been Broken in the Trust Mills at Joliet, Ills.

The Predictions of Trust Men

That the Mills Would be Started This Morning and That the Strikers Would Receive Their Ultimatum Did Not Come True.

Special by wire to Times-Democrat. Joliet, Ill., Aug. 26.—Despite of the predictions to the effect that the steel plants here would start up today and that the strikers would be notified to come back or be forever barred from the mills, no attempt was made to resume work and no notices were posted on the factory gates. The men refuse to discuss the action of the south Chicago men.

CONCESSIONS Will Be Offered By the Strikers and the Trouble May End.

Special by wire to Times-Democrat. Pittsburgh, Aug. 26.—Samuel Gompers is to go to New York as an emissary to J. P. Morgan, for the purpose of ending the steel strike. Certain concessions are to be made by the Amalgamated Association and it is hoped that a settlement will follow.

SEVENTH WEEK Of the Strike Opened With Both Sides Standing Firm.

Pittsburgh, Aug. 26.—Some remarkable changes in the condition of the strike-ridden mills of the United States Steel corporation are promised for the present week that will change the aspect of affairs considerably if carried out. It was stated on good authority that before the end of the week plants that have been operating on single turn would be run with full force and for the usual three full turns each day. Men enough have been secured for this purpose, officials say, in spite of the claims of the strikers that the companies could not get enough men to operate their plants, and the managers of the various mills say they will be ready with all the skilled men required to start up the machinery and turn out a heavy tonnage. Repairs are in progress at the Star mill, where the company proposes to place this week men enough to work the four double mills there full turn.

When the strikers were told of the claims of the officials of the Star mill they decided that there were as many skilled men at work as was claimed, and said those who were in the plant were sent there from the Monessen plant, which was being crippled in order to accomplish this work. Stronous denials were also made regarding alleged desertions from the Amalgamated ranks to fill positions offered by the corporation, and it was said that it would be impossible to obtain men enough to operate the plant without settling the strike.

There was no change in the situation regarding the tube mills. The mills are quiet and former employes remained away from the plants. It is understood that officials of the National Tube company have practically determined not to start these plants for the present.

DOOM

Met by a Fiendish Murderer

An Awful One.

Made a Confession of His Crime

And Laughed While Surrounded by the Determined Mob.

He was Bound to a Tree and Saturating With Oil Which was Soon Ignited and He was Burned to Death.

Winchester, Tenn., Aug. 26.—Henry Noles, the negro who criminally assaulted and shot to death Mrs. Charles Williams, wife of a prominent farmer, last Friday, was captured near Covington, Tenn. He was brought to Winchester by his captors and placed in the county jail. Sheriff Stewart made haste to try to barricade the jail and protect the prisoner. Soon an angry mob of several hundred men gathered, but Assistant Attorney General Eliot N. Whitaker appeared and made a speech to the crowd. He appealed to the men to assist him in laying excitement and upholding the majesty of the law. He promised to reconvene the grand jury to promptly indict the negro and have him speedily tried at the present term of court, assuring the crowd that his conviction and legal execution was a foregone conclusion. This appeal was supplemented by Judge J. J. Lynch, Captain W. P. Toller, Jesse M. Littleton, Foster Ramsey and others. No sooner had their appeals been made than several hundred citizens from the neighborhood where the crime was committed came up and augmented the crowd to thousands. They swept forward upon the jail, overpowered the sheriff and his deputies, took the prisoner and started for the scene of the crime, 12 miles distant. The mob was orderly but determined. It seemed that the whole population for miles around had turned out to see the fate of the wretch. A procession three miles in length followed the mob to the Williams home. Arriving at a point in sight of the scene of the crime the negro was placed upon a stump and given a chance to make a statement. He mounted the stump stoically and laughed as he began his statement. He said: "Tell all my sisters and brothers to meet me in glory. I am going to make that my home. Tell my mother to meet me where parting will be no more."

Noles was then asked as to whether any one else was implicated in the crime. He stated emphatically there was no one implicated but himself. "Why did you kill Mrs. Williams?" he was asked.

"I just done that because I had nothing else to do." When he finished his statement he was taken from the stump, carried to a tree near by, bound to the tree by chains and his body saturated with oil. At 1:40 p. m. a match was applied and instantly the quivering body was enveloped in flames. Fence rails were pitched about the burning body and soon life was extinct. The negro made no outcry at any time and died as stolidly as a stone. There were no disorderly scenes about the burning body. At least 6,000 people witnessed the horrible fate of the negro. Many remained several hours feeding the blaze until the body was entirely consumed. They then departed for their homes quietly.

NEED MORE MEN HANDY

Precautions Against Possibility of an Uprising at Manila.

NO IMMEDIATE TROUBLE THREATENED

Always Danger of an Outbreak by the Malay Element—White Guard Insufficient—Some Natives Do Not Understand Land Tax.

Manila, Aug. 25.—In the city of Manila there are now less than 1,000 effective soldiers, and it has been decided to increase this number by four companies of infantry. The official reason for the increase is that the guard duty is too heavy for the present force. There is a feeling that, although there is no apparent prospect of trouble, in the event of an uprising in the future, such as is always possible among the Malays, it would be better to have a sufficient body of troops available.

General Chaffee says he considers the city of Manila to be perfectly orderly and he can see no prospect of an uprising. Commissioner Wright thinks the people "extremely peaceable." He is satisfied that, although among a certain class there is some discontent on account of the land tax, which is not yet understood, this class is not likely to foment trouble.

Many army officers say they are gratified at the increase in the military force. They think that, with the military guard withdrawn from the prison, another uprising there might result in the release of about 1,500 prisoners. This possibility is regarded as a menace to the city by those who take that view of the case, for they believe the white guard is insufficient.

Civil officials look upon this contingency as unlikely, inasmuch as this 600 white police could mobilize at the prison before any of the prisoners could escape and become dispersed throughout the disaffected district.

Word was received that the Filipino Colonel Lorel, with 17 officers and 13 men, surrendered to Captain Brown of the Fourth Infantry at Talisay. The surrender of numerous other smaller contingents last week brings the total to more than 100.

FIGHT ON A TRAIN.

Negro Porter Tried to Throw Out the Baggage-master, Who Killed Him. Macon, Ga., Aug. 25.—J. C. Merril, a baggage-master on the Georgia Southern and Florida railroad, shot and killed Will Freeman, a negro porter on the same train, near Valdosta. Bad feeling had existed between the two men for some time. They accidentally met on the "shoofly" train, and a few minutes after the train left for Valdosta the negro entered the baggage car, and uttering an oath, exclaimed: "I have got you where I want you, and I am going to throw you out of this car." The negro sprang on Merril, who is a small man. A tussle ensued and Freeman was shot through the head, dying instantly.

Tried to Swim the Channel. Dover, England, Aug. 25.—Mr. Holbein started from Cape Gris-Nez in an attempt to swim to Dover and narrowly escaped drowning. He covered the course to a point within six miles of Dover and then collapsed, after having been in the water 12 hours and 46 minutes. The tug which accompanied him took him from the water and brought him to Dover. He was carried to a hotel in a semi-conscious state and subsequently was removed to a hospital, where he lay some time in a serious condition. It was found that his eyesight had been badly affected by the salt water. However, he has recovered, and announces his intention to renew the attempt next year. Allowing for his zigzag course he swam 26 miles. His exploit was very remarkable, considering the roughness of the sea, and has established a record.

Message From the Sea. Victoria, B. C., Aug. 26.—Harry Barnes, a prospector who has arrived at Cape Mudge, tells of having found a ship's medicine bottle tightly corked on the sand spit on Hagenmaster island, in the northern part of Bristol bay, which contained a sheet of paper on which was the following message in faded ink: "July 24, 1879. The schooner Albert wrecked in Unimak pass, 18 hands aboard, storm still raging. C. McLeod, ship's master."

Gold Coming From Chile. Omaha, Aug. 26.—Notice has been received at the local office of the American Smelting and Refining company of a shipment of gold ore from Chile. It is the first shipment of South American ore to the smelting company's plants and is in the nature of an experiment. The ore is said to be very rich, and if its treatment proves successful the shipment will be followed by others on a large scale.

CARELESS CONDUCTOR

Motioned the Motorman to Go Ahead; Struck by Freight Train.

Indianapolis, Aug. 25.—By a collision between a Greenfield interurban car and a train on the Belt railroad 14 persons were more or less injured. The conductor motioned the motorman to come ahead at the Belt crossing. A freight engine with a dozen cars was approaching and as the electric car reached the center of the track the freight cars struck it and threw it to the side of the track. The electric car was new and of heavy construction. It withstood the impact and did not crush, otherwise the consequences would have been terrible. The car was partially demolished. The motorman and conductor were thrown to the ground and badly bruised. They were taken to their homes. There were 12 passengers on the car, nearly all of them Greenwood people coming here to take the Cincinnati excursion.

Met on a Curve. Paducah, Ky., Aug. 26.—An Illinois Central accommodation train, from Fulton, Ky., and a light engine collided on a curve three miles from this city. Engineer W. C. Eubanks of the light engine, who overlooked the passenger train, was fatally hurt, both legs being cut off. The others injured are Conductor E. T. Arns, Flagman Murphy, Engineer Mike Kelly, Express Messenger Clarence Wright, Fireman William Hay and several passengers, none seriously. Both engines were demolished.

An Aquatic Adventure. Boston, Aug. 26.—To swim from Boston to New York is the feat that Peter E. McNally will attempt, making the start next Sunday. The entire distance is about 200 miles. Mr. McNally hopes to arrive at the battery in New York before noon Sept. 30. The actual distance is 282 1/2 miles, but the actual swimming course will be very little less than 400 miles.

MacArthur Will Stop at Canton. Chicago, Aug. 26.—Major General MacArthur, who has just returned from the Philippines, will leave for Washington Wednesday to report to the war department. He expects to stop at Canton on his way east to pay his respects to President McKinley. Sept. 11 he will return to his home in Milwaukee.

Will Not Retire. Santiago de Chile, Aug. 26.—Henry L. Wilson, United States minister to Chile, formally denies the report that he would soon retire and devote his time to commerce, representing several American firms. The papers of the city publish his denial.

British Baron Drowned. Toronto, Aug. 26.—Sir Frederick Robinson, Bart., clerk of the surrogate court, Osgood hall, and son of the late Sir Lauchlin Robinson, was drowned in Fairy lake, near Huntsville, where he was summering.

Killed His Cellmate. Greenville, Tenn., Aug. 26.—James Ross and Walter Pierce, negroes, were committed to jail Saturday night on trivial offenses and put in the same cell. The men fought with knives and Ross killed Pierce.

Of the South Side Church of Christ was Made a Notable One

By the Impressive Services Which He Conducted at the Church—
Farewell Reception Tomorrow Night.

Yesterday Rev. Clarence Mitchell delivered his farewell sermons at the south Lima Christian church. The morning discourse was especially for the congregation, the evening disquisition was a fine address to the people of south Lima generally. Both services were largely attended. At last night's service, Rev. Mitchell spoke of his three years pastorate in Lima, referring to various incidences connected therewith. Farewell sermons are generally of a pathetic nature, not so Rev. Mitchell's. He spoke humorously of a young minister's trials as well as his successes. Several amusing illustrations were given, which kept the audience in a pleasant mood. It was explained that the church depended upon no one man, or set of men for its perpetuity. Rev. Mitchell expressed his gratitude for numerous kindnesses shown him while pastor of the church by its members. He also expressed appreciation for the consideration shown him by many without the church. In conclusion he solemnly commended the people whom he has served the past few years into the keeping of Him whose cause he will labor for as zealously in another field as he did here. Rev. Mitchell has the respect of the entire community in which he has always exercised an ennobling influence. His fellow churchmen with the citizens of the city generally appreciate the noble work he has accomplished here while regretting his departure they know he does so only to avail himself of an opportunity for greater development which can but result in benefit to the life work to which he has dedicated himself. While last night was his final work in the church here he will not leave for his new charge at Wells, N. Y., for probably a week, owing to his mother's health. He also expects to visit his brother in Michigan before going to New York. Tomorrow evening Rev. Mitchell will hold a public farewell reception at his home on east Kibby street.

TESTING KOCH'S THEORY

Experiments Being Made in Chicago on Human Beings.

THE RESULTS WILL BE DECISIVE.

Physicians Say There Is No Risk to Life, as Tests Are Made With Mild Form of Disease Only—Patients Inoculated With Bacilli of Bovine Tuberculosis.

Officials of the Chicago health department are conducting extensive tests to substantiate or disprove Dr. Koch's theory that the bacilli of bovine tuberculosis cannot be transmitted to human beings, says a Chicago dispatch to the St. Louis Democrat. This step has long been under contemplation by them, but how to do it without laying themselves liable to indictment for murder in case a volunteer patient should die under their treatment has been a great problem. Now this obstacle has been overcome.

To clearly understand the matter it should be borne in mind that of the various kinds of tuberculosis there are three that are most common. These are the deadly form known as pulmonary consumption, lupus tuberculosis, purely a disease of the skin, which derives its name from the reddish brown patches which characterize it, and military tuberculosis, which has its seat in the brain. It is with the second of these that the local experiments are being conducted.

The bacillus or germ of all these diseases is the same. It is, nevertheless, a distinction which puzzles the layman that this same germ is exceedingly difficult for medical science to overcome in one form of the disease, while it is harmless in another. The first of these is pulmonary consumption, the second the lupus form. Hence all danger of death is removed from the Chicago experiments, while at the same time the results to be obtained will be fully as decisive and important to the medical world as they would be were the patient to undergo a test possibly fatal in its outcome.

Three men have submitted themselves to the tests, which are now in the first stages of the experiment. Active bacilli of bovine tuberculosis were procured by the officials of the health department, and then all that remained was an operation similar to that of vaccination. Pieces of skin on the arms of the patients were scratched aside, and the bacilli were applied to these wounds. Now all that either the doctors or patients can do is to await the result.

These tests are being conducted under the supervision of Dr. Adolph Gehrmann, chief of the municipal laboratory, and Dr. W. A. Evans of the Columbus medical laboratory. Assisting them, as he says, but really the leader, as his intimates say, is Dr. F. W. Reilly, assistant health commissioner of Chicago. "Too much stress," said Dr. Reilly, when questioned about the experiments, "cannot be laid upon the fact that, while no danger is incurred by the patients of Dr. Gehrmann and Dr. Evans, the results will be equally as decisive as if they had been subjected to inoculation that might bring about pulmonary consumption. Dr. Koch says there would be no danger even in the latter case, but he admits that this is only a theory. He acknowledges that he has transmitted no bovine bacilli to humans. This has now been done in Chicago, and the results will be worldwide in their medical importance.

"How will we determine those results? Easily enough. In six weeks or two months the patients will either have the reddish brown patches which characterize lupus tuberculosis or they will not. If they have, Dr. Koch is plainly wrong. If they have not, he is plainly in the right. In either event, the deduction drawn will be open to little dispute in the medical world, though doubtless if they have not developed lupus tuberculosis the experiments will then continue by the inoculation of bovine bacilli into a human to determine beyond question his susceptibility thereto to pulmonary consumption.

"Should the men now being experimented upon develop lupus tuberculosis, their punishment will be only temporary discomfort and possibly a little pain under the surgical knife, because, if the spots do not yield to other treatment, they can easily be cut out.

"Our experiments are being conducted chiefly from an economic standpoint. Millions of dollars' worth of cattle are sacrificed annually because tests have shown them to be afflicted with animal tuberculosis, and their killing has been ordered because of the fear of danger to human beings from tuberculosis meat or milk. If our patients develop an lupus tubercle, the necessity of this great slaughter will be obviated. Until, however, Dr. Koch is plainly proved to be in the right our restrictions on this class of cattle will continue in all of their present vigor."

One of his patients is a messenger boy of 18, another is a clerk in the health department, five years older, and the third is an attaché of the Columbus laboratory, aged 33. The experiments will be widened as soon as possible, as far as age is concerned. Both older and younger persons will be sought, though it will be difficult, say the officials, to obtain the consent of parents to experiments on children.

The Rev. Dr. George O. Pontecat of Yonkers, now preaching in the Marybone Presbyterian church in London, has been selected by the American board of foreign missions to establish branches of the Presbyterian church in the Philippine Islands.

SANTOS-DUMONT'S RIVAL.

M. Rose Will Compete For the 100,000 Franc Prize.

So far from being discouraged by the collapse of Santos-Dumont's balloon, his rival aeronauts are all the more anxious to conquer the air, says a special cable dispatch from Paris to the New York Journal. Besides, the time it will take to repair Santos-Dumont's apparatus offers them opportunity to compete for M. Deutsch's prize of 100,000 francs to any one who will make the trip from St. Cloud around the Eiffel tower and back again in thirty minutes.

So another airship, the Aviator Rose, has been completed with all due haste and is being inflated at Colombes. This machine is the invention of M. Rose.

The inventor has studied the laws of aerial navigation for fifteen years and is sure he has mastered them with the Aviator Rose. The machine has a spacious car and will carry eight passengers. Despite Santos-Dumont's narrow escape from death, many enthusiastic aeronauts are ready to pay heavily to accompany M. Rose on his trial for the Deutsch prize.

The Aviator Rose consists of twin balloons, somewhat of the shape of cigars. They are tipped with aluminum and staid fore and aft with aluminum bands. Each balloon is 45 meters (145 feet) long, and at the widest point 26 feet in diameter. The machinery and car are placed between these balloons, which are connected with each other and the car by cross stays of aluminum. When fully equipped, the balloon weighs 2,260 kilos (4,840 pounds).

Two horizontal screws will serve to raise and lower the airship, two vertical screws will move it forward or backward. These four screws are worked by a petrol motor of 12 horsepower. A parachute of 100 square meter surface and of wood construction will avoid dangerous descents.

The air condensers are filled with gas to lighten the weight. In theory the airship appears to be perfect, and practical trials will soon prove how far it will answer expectations.

AN ARMLESS WONDER.

Fox Has Carried Mail 32 Years.

John Fox of Milltown, near New Brunswick, N. J., has reached the conclusion that a man can get along just as well without arms as with them if he will but make up his mind to do so. Fox is the mail carrier at Milltown, a position which he has held since he lost his arms in a mill accident thirty-two years ago, says the New York Times. He has a hook fastened to the stump of each of his arms, and with these he can do more than many men who have the use of their arms and hands.

Fox is the champion fisherman of Milltown. He can bait his own hook and cast his line. He can reel in any fish that inhabits Milltown waters. When asked if he had any trouble taking a fish off the hook, he replied that it was not half as much trouble as getting him on. Fox also cultivates a small patch of ground adjoining his house. He can drive a horse to the plow, binding the plow in position with a rope thrown over his shoulders and guiding the reins by the hook arms. He is also an accurate shot, being able to bring a bird or rabbit down with a shotgun. He cuts his own supply of firewood with a buck saw. Fox is also an accomplished mechanic. He has constructed, without aid, a large cider press. He cut out every part, bored the holes for the bolts, and fitted the various parts together without the least difficulty. He is now 72 years of age.

Speaking of how he gets along the old man said: "Anybody can get along without his arms if he has to. Every time I row, fish, hunt, or plow I find a better way to do it, and it continually grows easier to get along."

She—"It must be grand to be famous. How I'd like to have a name."

He—"Er—how would mine suit you?"

A Hollow Victory.

London, Aug. 26.—Although the French papers hail Turkey's yielding as a great triumph for France—more especially as it was largely believed that the sultan's obduracy was due to the supposed friendship between Germany and Turkey—it is felt in London, despite considerable satisfaction over the outcome, that there is a grave doubt as to whether France has achieved more than a paper victory. The British theory is that M. Constant really wished to force Turkey to purchase quays which are notoriously unremunerative. The sultan has avoided this, thus securing the practical results while leaving to M. Constant the empty congratulations.

Negro's Hut Burned.

Birmingham, Ala., Aug. 26.—A small grocery store and dwelling at Thompson's Springs, eight miles from Birmingham, occupied by Miles Brooks, a negro, was burned by a mob. Brooks is alleged to have written an improper letter to Mrs. Cutcliff, a white woman, who had occasionally patronized his store. Daniel Cutcliff, the woman's husband, searched for the negro two days. The store and dwelling were both closed during that time and a crowd of men who had joined in the search burned the dwelling and store. Twenty shots were fired into the building, but the negro had left the house and no one was hurt. A search is still being made for Brooks.

A March on Road's Record

And a New One

Is Established by Engineer T. Sullivan.

Made the Run from Toledo to Dayton in Two Hours and Forty-five Minutes.

The Knights Templar, Enroute to Louisville, are Given a Run for Their Money Over the C. &amp; D. Railroad.

Engineer Tom Sullivan smashed the record on the C. H. & D. yesterday, when the 117 hatched to three coaches and a baggage car the old reliable engine carried the Knights Templar from Toledo to Dayton, a distance of 142 miles, in 145 minutes actual running time. Little else was talked of in the train dispatcher's office yesterday afternoon and it was conceded that not only was it the fastest but at the same time the smoothest run made on the road in many a day. Tom had been waiting and knew it in advance. He wanted, if possible, to beat that excursion run from Dayton to Northampton, and when he wrapped his trip around the throttle he flashed a radiant smile of pleasure at the fact that the untroubled every joint in his gear.

Shortly the train slipped out of the Toledo yards, gathering increased speed at every turn of the wheels, and when the train was reached the 117 was going at a tremendous pace, like a bird on wing. After the train was started, the dispatcher's office noted the second click off and the train was off at a minute clip. They were pulling for Sullivan, and when he wiped the sweat out of his eyes at the first stop and saw at the bottom of the order, "It's up to you, Mordecai," he threw the tragedy glance again at Cox and the latter put in another successful.

Lima, 71 miles in 80 minutes. One hundred Knights got off the train and were escorted to the dining room of the French house, where a splendid dinner awaited their coming, but the train that brought them had glided over the course with the ease of a nursery cradle and few of the passengers had noted the killing pace they had traveled. Sullivan was over the shed hand by those who were expecting things of him, and Engineer Cox was nursing a bel of coals that kept the 117 thrashing with new life.

Once more conductor Wise gave the signal and Sullivan eased her out. The click of the telegraph instrument was the only sound that broke the silence, but as the stations slipped by there was an assurance that Sullivan and Cox were working for the record and then came the announcement:

Duston, 71 miles in 85 minutes.

The distance from Toledo to Dayton is 142 miles and the actual running time of the Knights Templar train was two hours and forty-five minutes.

Officials on Inspection Tour. President Underwood and General Manager Fitch, of the Erie system, are in Chicago on a tour of inspection. It is said that Mr. Underwood contemplates some radical plans for improvement of the western divisions of the Erie, particularly its Chicago terminals, which, if executed, will place the road a par with any of its competitors. A fact not generally known is that the Erie is the only line between Chicago and New York under one management. This gives the company and its officers a great advantage in the way of traffic and operation. Among the innovations proposed by the Erie management are the burning of anthracite coal on all passenger engines between Chicago and New York and the oiling of grade crossings to lay dust. There is not now a road between these two cities that burns hard coal in its passenger engines for any considerable distance and none that uses oil on roadbeds. Track tanks are to be installed along the line to do away with water tank stops and to secure faster time.—Chicago Chronicle.

Water Played Out. Considerable difficulty was experienced by the Erie in operating trains on the Lima division, says the Huntington News. Water played out at Anglatze and the machinery at the pumping station at Deatur got out of order. A hose was secured and engine of train 77 and others were supplied with city water.

A Few More Specials. Two more Knights Templar specials left Toledo for Louisville last night. The first left at 7:05 with the 201 buckled on. In charge of engineer Miller and fireman Gambel, conductor Frith and brakeman Wilkinson made up the crew. The second had engine 103, and the crew consisted of engineer Latham, fireman Kerns, conductor Durbin and brakeman Green. At 8:40 and 10:00 o'clock this evening the last of the specials will be brought out of Toledo the same engines 201 and 203 going up after them this morning. The same crews will make the trip except that conductor Wise will relieve conductor Frith.

Along the L. E. & W. Louis Long ex-L. E. & W. brakeman and wife, of south Elizabeth street, have located in Denver, Col. Conductor C. H. Davis, of the L. E. & W., laid off Saturday for rest, after having had charge of one of the Buffalo Bill show trains for several days. The reduction in the shop force in this city and Peru, Ind., by the Lake Erie and Western did not greatly discommode the machinists. As fast as they were released by the Lake Erie and Western they were hired by the Clover Leaf. The only inconvenience was the removal to Frankfort.

C. H. & D. Sittings. W. W. Herring, of Celina, the well known Superintendent of the C. H. & D., was in the city today and gave the Herald man an explanation of a growth on the second joint of the fore finger of his right hand, which he has carried for 20 years. It was caused by a small piece of steel which became imbedded in the flesh and was never removed. Mr. Herring has refrained from having the piece of metal removed, fearing blood poison.—Delphos Herald.

The crossing of the Millcreek Valley traction line and the C. H. & D. railway having been completed, and electric cars have begun running between Hamilton and Cincinnati over the new line.

The annual report of Secretary and Treasurer Scallan of the C. H. & D. Employees Mutual Benefit association, shows that the membership is now 1,262. During the year the total disbursements were $23,734.45. Of this amount $9,444.76 was paid on account of injuries and $11,560 to heirs as death benefits.

The 311 which belongs to this division blew out a cylinder head on the Cincinnati division this morning and was taken to Dayton for repairs.

Conductor Fitzmaurice is on car 38, extra passenger conductor Wise being assigned to the Knight Templar special.

The 207 was taken out of the shops after repairs for a short run. The 191 will also be released this afternoon after a general overhauling. The 7 spot is in the round house for light repairs.

Traveling boiler-maker Wm. Holland, is at North Baltimore, making repairs on an engine.

W. A. Behoringer, one of the recently employed brakemen is on car 26 in place of W. C. Welsh.

Engineer Smith, Bogart and Stout are marked off. They are taking a rest for a round trip.

Billie Burns of the boiler shop, has been advanced and is learning to roll flues.

The 201 was received at the round house this morning with her pilot slightly injured. Engineer Wilber rounded the curve on Buckins hill and bumped into a hand car. The men had a narrow escape and when a coat was taken from under the wheels, all out up, Wilber thought he had caught one of them on the pilot.

Joe Wilhelm of the boiler makers shop has been sent to Piquette to put the switch engine in shape.

The excursion to Toledo yesterday carried 130 visitors from Lima. Two Mackinac excursion trains will be carried over the line from Cincinnati tomorrow evening. The crews and engines that go down with the Knights Templars specials this evening will have the handling of the trains.

Engineer W. H. Warner, who with his wife, has been spending some time at Put-in-Bay, expects to return home either today or tomorrow.

Notes From Findlay. Fireman Beebe, of the C. H. & D., has returned from a visit to Lima.

The boys at the C. H. & D. offices are having a laugh at the expense of Baggageman Frank Dell. The other night the plastering dropped off the ceiling of his kitchen and Frank thinking it was burglars got out his blunderbus and went after them. He had the place replastered yesterday.

W. C. Bishop, traveling passenger agent of the C. H. & D., was in Toledo yesterday.

Brakeman Crosby, of the C. H. & D., local is laying off, moving his family from Toledo to Deshler.

A new roof is being placed on the C. H. & D. passenger station by road carpenters from Lima.

Plans have been completed for the new Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton railway depot which is to be built before winter. The new building is to be constructed with a view to giving the finest of accommodations.—Findlay Republican.

THE IDLER.

Couldn't Get It All.

Another of those polite and obliging young ladies of Troy has come to grief, according to the Record. It happened in church. The young lady had a father, and in front of her was an elderly man who had a raveling on his shoulder. The young lady did what she would have wanted some other young lady to do for her father under like circumstances—she tried to remove it. She gave one little twitch, but the pull brought about a foot more of thread into view. Setting her teeth hard she gave it another yank and about a yard of raveling hung down the man's back, and the end was not yet. Once more she nerved herself for the effort and then discovered that she was unraveling the man's undershirt.

Ready for Labor Day. A dispatch from Wapakoneta says the first cars on the Western Ohio, between Lima and that city will be run on Labor Day. The road is ballasted nearly all the way, and the trolly is constructed. Should they run, they will obtain their power from the Lima City Company and the electric light plant at Wapakoneta.

Dangerous Sport. A peculiar accident happened at Kenton Saturday. Three young boys had tied themselves to a long piece of rope at equal distances apart and were playing in the street. They failed to see a horse driven rapidly until the animal was almost upon them. In trying to get out of the way they ran in opposite directions and the horse plunged into the rope jerking the three boys directly under the animals' hoofs and one of them seriously.

Every City Needs It. Delphos is working itself into the fever of erecting a hospital and the idea is taking root with the class of people who generally get what they want after. Commenting on the proposition the Herald says:

"Take for example, the Lima City Hospital, which was started only a short time ago. It has proven a blessing to the town, and many cases have found their way there from Delphos and surrounding country. The first building used as a hospital soon became too small and it is apparent that an addition must be built or an entire new structure provided. As a result there is now nearly completed an addition to the well regulated home for sick and maimed, that will cost $5,000. It is non-sectarian, is managed in the interests of no clique, its doors are open to all, and whether rich or poor, equal attention is given to all. Delphos should have an institution conducted on this plan."

Sickness Prevented It. The game of tennis that was to have been played at Delphos Saturday by the McLaughlin Bros., had to be postponed on account of the illness on one of the Lima boys.

Copeland pays cash for everything. That's why he sells so cheap. Moved to 335 north Main street. 69-11

SORES AND ULCERS.

Interview With Sir Thomas

About Lifting the Cup.

SAYS THE BEST BOAT WILL WIN.

Challenger Thinks Shamrock II Better Than Shamrock I—Prizes His Crew—Says He Will Get Fair Play.

King Edward's Interest in the Contest.

Just coming from a farewell audience at Marlborough House previous to his sailing for those shores Sir Thomas Lipton was seen by a representative of Collier's Weekly, who obtained from him the following interview:

"That cup is still in the lap of the gods. I am often asked whether I think I shall win it. My only reply is that I hope to win it, or I should not enter the contest. I have that hope, and it is part of my sanguine nature perhaps that during the recent trials of the new challenger on the Clyde the hope grew at moments into an expectation. If there was certainty that I should win or that I should lose, there would be no sport. Only one thing is quite sure—that the best boat will win, and I am a sportsman enough to wish that I should win it. If my boat is the best, well and good. I shall rejoice to bring the cup back with me, but the next best thing to bringing it away is to leave it where it is."

"Were this contest not a thoroughly friendly one, I should not enter upon it. America knows my mind on this matter, and I know America's. Nothing could exceed the kindness shown me when last I challenged from the time of my arrival in American waters till the time of my departure. Thousands of people came out to say goodbye. I shall never forget the sight of the crowd. Crowded steamers came down the river, and as the St. Louis passed Sandy Hook's battery fired two guns in farewell salutation. The American press was particularly good to me, and the interviewer, who is rather a bit of a bore in the imagination of some of my traveling countrymen, I found a capital and a considerate enough fellow. And it is my confident opinion—an opinion I expressed on my return home—that a great number of the people of America were rather disappointed because the Shamrock I did not win. A greater proof than this of the hospitality of my country I do not know and cannot imagine."

"I do not think it necessary to reiterate my faith in the absolute fair play of American sportsmen or to retell here how Congress, quite independently of this particular race, has by a special amendment of its navigation laws, undertaken the task—no light one—of keeping the course clear for contestants. It used to be necessary to say these things here at home. That is not an agreeable remark—not a more agreeable remark than the lady made to Disraeli the younger. I spend my life in defending you. Without saying that, I have to admit that when I first entered my challenge many of my friends asked me whether I was sure of a fair field and no favor."

"Well, I was sure, and I told them so with an emphasis that rather startled some of them. Now nobody even asks me the foolish question. That is something gained by the race of two years ago and by the race which is about to be run. If I do not bring back the cup, I do something much better—and to the right understanding and the consequent good will between the sport loving public on one side of the Atlantic and their colleagues on the other."

"Turning to the future, I have no reason to think that the circumstances of the second race will be any less congenial than those of the first. On the contrary, I believe that the American people and myself were never on kinder terms than we are now. I speak, at any rate, for myself."

"Sept. 21 will see the first of the five races that are to decide which is the better boat. Why as a citizen and a cosmopolitan I await that decision with equanimity has been already told. Why as a sportsman I equally await with confidence is, of course, a far more problematical affair. Shamrock II is, however, in my opinion, a better boat than Shamrock I. Mr. Watson has spent more time over her. Day and night, so to say, for the last 18 months, he has put his best work into her, aided by Mr. Elfr. They have benefited by their bygone experiences. The result is that I have now a better boat than ever, and I could not have a better crew."

"When I said goodbye to them before they set sail across the Atlantic the other day, I told them to their faces what I thought of them—that they are the finest set of men our country can produce. I told them, too, that if any favor was shown it would not be to their disadvantage. They are full of hope for success, and they have, besides, in that event, certain substantial expectations. Mr. Watson, too, pronounced them a reward, and their confidence in the winning powers of the boat is shown by the request they made that the money should be put upon the races."

"Nobody has ever accused me of half-heartedness in any enterprise of mine, and of all my enterprises this, perhaps, is the one which stands first. I have done my utmost to get a good boat and a good crew, and when I reach New York, a month ahead of the race, I shall give all my time and thought to getting my boat into the best condition. I shall force my tongue to say 'No' where it would prefer to frame a 'Yes' to all allurements on land until I have settled this great event on the water. Yet I can sincerely say again what I said before—I shall emerge from this contest unimpaired. I shall have at least that advantage over King O'Neill. Indeed I often feel that I am in the most invidiously favorable position expressed by the formula, 'Heads I win; tails you lose,' for this is a contest and these are foes where victory is glorious and defeat not a disgrace."

"With my last interview with King Edward still uppermost in my mind I may be allowed to say that nobody takes a greater interest in this race of ours than Edward VII. and that the American nation has no greater admirer than he. His interest in all that concerns the cup has been shown by his visits to my boats at various stages—to the first while she was still on the stocks, to the second in that trial spin which—well, was a trial and a spin of a kind we did not want. That he wishes good luck to Shamrock II on patriotic grounds is only natural, but if I may make a guess at another motive for his majesty's desire that she may win it would be this: Her victory would mean the return visit of American boats to our shores and a royal welcome to American yachtsmen."

OF INESTIMABLE VALUE.

Dr. Doty on the Mosquito Experiment.

Health Officer Doty, whose experiments in exterminating malaria by slaying mosquitoes have given him an expert knowledge of the disease bearing insects, said to a New York Journal reporter:

"While deeply regretting the loss of two valuable lives in the experiments of the United States authorities in Havana with disease infected mosquitoes, I positively know that they have been carried out in the most conservative and scientific way, carefully and advisedly, in the best interests of science and for the benefit of mankind generally."

"The knowledge gained from these unfortunate deaths is of inestimable value to the myriads of human beings dwelling in the countries and districts affected by yellow fever. To be of any value to the human race these experiments must be made on human bodies, and accidents will happen. The great point is whether the end justified the means. I say, notwithstanding this lamentable fatality, that it does. To begin with, yellow fever is a most uncertain disease. An eminent physician with great experience of the disorder once said:

"There are two kinds of yellow fever—one where the patients die and the other where they don't."

"Now, take the statistics of Havana. Three years ago there were nearly 500 cases of yellow fever in the month of August there, and a large proportion proved fatal. This month there were only seven cases."

"This, I maintain, in itself shows the inestimable value of the experiments with infected mosquitoes made by Dr. Reed and his colleagues. In consequence of them orders to provide netting, curtains and screens to keep mosquitoes away have been enforced in Havana, while new systems of drainage and sewerage have destroyed the breeding places of these death and disease carrying pests."

"Two lives have been lost unfortunately, but how many millions will be saved if they only follow the lessons derived from these valuable investigations!"

"I have stepped outside work for the season, but I am breeding mosquitoes in my laboratory, with a view to a number of scientific experiments, the nature of which I do not care to disclose for the present."

FRANCE AND TURKEY.

Fighting Forces of the Two Nations Compared.

The armed strength of France and Turkey in land forces on a war footing is as follows:

Turkey: 125,000. France: 300,000.

While there is a great difference in the figures, it came to an invasion by France because she would fight on her own ground and France would have to transport all her troops. But it is not likely that anything except naval forces would be used by France, and in that respect the relative strength of the two countries is even more disproportionate than shown in the land forces, says the New York Press. This is the naval showing of the two nations:

Turkey: 10. France: 12.

Of torpedo boats and destroyers Turkey has 73, while France has 245. The Turkish navy has 115 heavy guns and 300 in the secondary batteries. In heavy guns France has 743 and 4,278 in the secondary batteries.

In reality the entire navy is largely on paper, most of his ships being in no condition to fight and many of them of obsolete design. The French navy is in fine condition and modern in every respect.

From a modern viewpoint the French troops outrank the Turk, but the entire man are fearless to a degree and have wonderful powers of endurance. Recently there has been much discord in the Turkish army because the pay of both officers and men is much in arrears, and it is not likely great dependence could be placed on them in case of a war.

Admiral Schley's Expenses.

Rear Admiral Schley's expenses in defending himself before the court of inquiry, says a Washington dispatch to the New York World, will cost all the money awarded him by the prize court for his victory over the Spanish squadron at Santiago, approximately $5,000. A close personal friend of the admiral is authority for this statement.

It Hits Hard

But Hurts Only Those Who Are Guilty.

And Rev. Leatherman Again Takes Up the Oratorical Cudgel and Wields it to Good Effect.

Rev. W. A. Brundige, pastor of the First Christian church on west Wayne street, addressed a large audience last night on the topic, "Midnight in Town," the subject offering him excellent opportunities of publicly deploring the corruptness of the city's morals and scolding the authorities for permitting vice and crime to run rampant. He read the seventh chapter of Proverbs, and what it revealed he said was a picture of the happenings of every night in the city of Lima.

Rev. Brundige, has, no doubt, made a few personal observations himself, and he was thus enabled to truthfully unfold the violations that the mayor and police under him wink at. "The slam of the saloon door, the hiccough of the drunkard, the click of the dice in the gambler's den, are all familiar sounds," he said, "and engaged in these transgressions are men who claim to be somebody in daylight. The larlot practices her vile trade on the open streets and into her wicked abode are led the youth of the city to have their minds and character wrecked by the alluring wiles of their wicked deizens. "The police and mayor know who they are, but the secret rests with them for they are purchased with a price and the prostitute and gambler pursue their uninterrupted course in the same fashion of decent and respectable citizens. The criminal to, is abroad, for it is a well known fact that Lima has become in a way, the dumping ground for the offscourings of the earth. Houses are robbed with risk of murder and rapine, and the risk is not great for the men who are paid to protect life and property have been found absent when the opportunity for relief is at hand.

"There is a way out of all this and when the day approaches, every man whose heart is in the right place, and whose conscience tells him of the wrong that arises from the present condition, should strike for the needed reform. I for one shall do my duty and I pray that every member of my church will do likewise."

Rev. W. H. Leatherman, Another large and representative audience congregated at Grace M. E. church on the south side last night to hear the pastor, Rev. W. H. Leatherman's second sermon on the affairs of the present city administration relative to the public morals. "Another Phase of Civic Affairs," was the subject chosen by Mr. Leatherman and his discourse was interesting and conservative and yet the speaker fearlessly, and without the slightest degree of partisan or social prejudice, arraigned those who are guilty of fostering a policy and harboring persons who menace and destroy moral justice. The sermon was an eloquent and an impressive one that received the approbation of every listener.

WIFE

Causesthe Arrest of Her Husband.

He is Charged

With Having Cruelly Assaulted Her.

She Alleges That He Threw Pepper Sauce in Her Face Last Night.

Traveling Man Arrested for Drunkenness Last Night and Fined in Mayor's Court This Morning.

Last night a man who is registered at the police station as George Ansbach and who gives his residence address as west McKibben street, was arrested by officer Patton and Bacone on a charge of assault and battery. The complaint under which the prisoner was locked up was made by his wife, Eva Ansbach, and contrary to the usual rule in such cases, the woman appeared at the mayor's office this morning and signed an affidavit which contains a charge that is in accordance with the complaint she made last night.

Ansbach claims that he did nothing whatever for which he should be punished, but his wife tells a different story. She claims that he threw her down on the floor at their home last night and threw pepper sauce in her face. The liquid, she says, blinded her and she had to grope her way to the home of a neighbor to secure relief. The case had not yet been disposed of.

Traveling Man Fined. Yesterday afternoon patrolman Walter Mills had occasion to represent a traveling man named W. D. Holdman whom he found on the streets in an intoxicated condition. Later, the stranger had his shoes polished by Harry Fields and refused to pay for the work. Officer Mills then arrested the man and this morning he was assessed $5.00 for his escapade.

THE GREYS WON.

The Greys of the east end and the U. S. linemen played a game of base ball yesterday afternoon in which the Greys defeated the U. S. linemen by a score of 25 to 9. The feature of the game was the three home runs knocked by Ed. Newland, of the Greys. Batteries—U. S.: L. Kent and Neff. Greys—W. Fisher and F. Cramer. Umpire—Mr. Snyder.

HORSES

Started to Run While the Driver

Was in a Saloon Drinking a Glass of Beer.

He Ran After the Animals and Climbed Into the Wagon Just as it was Drawn in Front of a Passenger Train.

A Celina paper gives the following account of the tragic death of John Miller, of Spencerville:

"John Miller, of Spencerville, O., was instantly killed in Celina Friday night. A team of fine horses, the property of Charles Meyers, were also killed and a wagon demolished.

"Mr. Miller, an unmarried man aged 32, worked for Mr. Meyers. He was returning from town with the team and wagon and stopped at Jos. Schunk's saloon at the C. H. & D. crossing on Logan street for a glass of beer. While drinking the beverage, the horses started westward. He ran out, and had just jumped on the wagon when the north-bound passenger struck the front part of the vehicle. The unfortunate man was thrown beneath the wheels and was dead when help arrived. Cramer Lisle found the entire top of the skull crushed in, the right side torn open with the entrails protruding and the right arm broken. "The horses were ground to sausage meat and the wagon splintered. The accident occurred at 8 p. m. and a large crowd gathered immediately to view the ghastly sight."

PRISONER

Brought Here by Marshal Fall, of Kenton.

Is Wanted in Celina for Badly Disfiguring Another Man's Face With a Heavy Board.

Marshal Tom Houser, of Celina, was here today to receive from the custody of Marshal Fall, of Kenton, a prisoner who is wanted in Celina on a charge that will probably be made assault with intent to kill, when the prisoner is arraigned before Mayor Landfair, of the reservoir town.

The prisoner is Charles Underwood and he has been traced into Indiana, back to St. Marys and finally captured in Kenton. During the Celina fair, last week, it is alleged that Underwood assaulted a man named Bailey and knocked his nose off of his face with a board. Bailey will recover but will be horribly disfigured for life.

TEXAS

Now Has Thirty-one Oil Gushers

That Cover Less Than Fifty Acres of Ground.

About Thirty More are Yet to Come in and With the Stragglers the Tract Will be Drilled Seventy Times.

There are now 31 gushers in the Beaumont Texas field. They cover less than 50 acres of ground. There are about 30 more to come in on the same space, and perhaps a few others will strike in so that there will be 65 or 70 wells on the 50 acres. According to the stories told by the advertisers of the field, and the stock companies doing business there, these will all be capable of yielding from 20,000 to 100,000 barrels each. According to what John Markham, son, relates the reckoning that is to come sooner or later will show a different state of things. He says that it is his opinion that there is not a well in that field that is capable of furnishing 6,000 barrels a day for any considerable length of time.

Young Markham is from the Bradford field and probably judges rightly. The fact of the matter is that if the Spindletop territory is not largely extended many of the parties that have gone to large expense in converting their establishments into oil-burning instead of coal-burning institutions will wake up some day in the near future and find that there is not enough oil to go around. We have seen the results of this drilling a hole into the ground regardless of space before. It has never failed and it will not fail in the Beaumont case to bring disaster to many. It may prove profitable to a few, but the great majority will come out of the shuffle poorer than they entered, no matter how large the wells now appear to be. If they were one-quarter the size represented by the others oil would sell at the wells there for a cent a barrel the moment the wells were cut loose. You cannot beat fate. You cannot change a universal law. Nor can you fool an old oil man out of the days of Oil Creek romances.
